

Country of Origin Labeling

Information For Parents and Exhibitors

What is COOL?

The COOL (Country of Origin Labeling) final rule for commodities took effect on March 16, 2009. This USDA rule provides consumers with knowledge and as to where their food originated.

In December 2015, COOL was rescinded by the federal government for Beef and Pork products. Thus NO COOL forms are needed for beef and swine producers.

This new requirement is not meant to be burdensome for producers to follow, but buyers of livestock projects will be asking for more information than in the past.

What Commodities are Required?

This rule affects lamb, chicken, and goats; perishable commodities (fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables); macadamia nuts; pecans; ginseng; and peanuts. For exhibitors, this would include the following species: goats, poultry and sheep, and also animals that may not be harvested until a much later time. All animals that will eventually be harvested need to have documentation.

How does this rule affect youth exhibitors?

Ask for Documentation—Exhibitors need to make sure they collect documentation from the seller when purchasing livestock. Documentation could include the following:

- Signed affidavit from seller of livestock (Example on the 3rd page of this document)
- See other examples of documentation in table below.

Keep documentation for 2 years minimum—Exhibitors must keep the appropriate documentation for a minimum of two years in the case of a USDA audit.

Buyers of livestock <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Signed affidavit from seller of livestock</li><li>• Bill of sale</li><li>• Health Papers</li><li>• Brand Inspection</li><li>• Supporting documents identified by USDA<sup>1</sup></li></ul>	Original producers of livestock <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Birth records (lambing, kidding)</li><li>• Inventory records that reconcile</li><li>• Purchase and sales receipts</li><li>• Supporting documents identified by USDA<sup>1</sup></li></ul>
<sup>1</sup>Balance sheet, income statement, other financial records, scale tickets and purchase and sales receipts, closeout records and/or feed records or bills, health papers, vaccination or other health treatment records or receipts, shipping records, or lambing/kidding records, breed association registered pedigrees.

Sign county fair auction

documentation—Exhibitors will be required to sign documentation of animals that go to buying stations and or large processors from the county fair auction. The fair office/livestock/auction committees will keep these forms for a minimum of 2 years and pass on the original to the processing plant.

- Youth who are under 18 years of age need to have a parent/guardian sign COOL documentation as well as the exhibitor signature.
- If youth take animals home from the fair and market them later, it will be their responsibility to complete paperwork with the entities they sell too.
